

Science LECTURE

for Alaska SERIES 2010

Online Continuing Education Course

Enroll today in ED F593: Current Topics in the Natural Sciences for Educators.

This statewide course coincides with the Science for Alaska Lecture series and requires review of five of the six lectures in the series. Attend the free lectures in person, view them online, or listen to them on iTunes U. Coursework is completed online via Blackboard. Course requirements, lecture schedule and topics are posted at <http://www.scienceforalaska.com>.

Participation in this course allows teachers to network with colleagues statewide, incorporate new scientific research into classroom lesson plans, and earn one continuing education credit through the University of Alaska Fairbanks.

All work must be completed by May 1, 2010 to receive credit through UAF. The course costs $160. For general information, call Dr. Ute Kaden at 907-474-5721 or e-mail ukaden@alaska.edu.

HOW TO ENROLL:

Fill out a UAF registration form and return it, along with your $160 registration fee, to:

3 INFORMATION RELEASE

The university may release certain directory information to the public on a routine basis unless a student requests, in writing, that the university not release it. Forms to request that directory information not be released are available in the Registrar's Office. No directory information will be released until the last day of late registration. Any request to withhold directory information will continue until a student provides permission, in writing, for the university to release such. After that, information will be released when appropriate. Students withholding directory information will not appear in the published university chancellor's and dean's lists and will have directory information withheld from all University of Alaska campuses. Photo ID will be required to discuss your account.

The following is considered directory information:

1. name;
2. electronic mail addresses;
3. hometown: city, state;
4. weight and height of students on athletic teams;
5. dates of attendance at UAF;
6. program/major field(s) of study;
7. degrees and certificates received, including dates;
8. participation in officially recognized university activities; and
9. academic and co-curricular honors, awards and scholarships, including dates received.

No one outside the institution shall have access to, nor will the institution disclose any other information from a student's education record, without the written consent of the student, except to personnel within the institution on a need to know basis, to officials of other institutions in which a student seeks to enroll, to persons in compliance with a judicial order, and to persons in an emergency in order to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons, or as otherwise permitted under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

RESIDENT AND NON-RESIDENT TUITION

First-time non-degree seeking students or students returning to enrollment after more than a two-year absence will automatically be considered non-residents unless they have graduated from an Alaskan High School or submit an "Application for Resident Tuition" with this registration form prior to the first published day of instruction, meet the criteria for the purposes of residency pursuant to UA Board of Regents Regulation R05.10.05 and are approved as a resident of Alaska.

A "resident" is any person who, prior to the published first day of instruction at his or her home campus declares the intention to remain in Alaska indefinitely and can prove one of the following to be true:

- has been physically present in Alaska for two years (apart from documented absences due to illness, vacations, attending another educational institution while maintaining Alaska residency, or other absences not exceeding a total of 120 days in the two-year period)
- has received or been qualified to receive an Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend within the past 12 months
- is a dependent child of an Alaska resident

For more specific criteria, please refer to the "Application for Resident Tuition."

LATE PAYMENT/REINSTATEMENT FEES - Students who miss the scheduled deadline for fee payment are charged a late payment fee of $50. Students who are dropped from classes due to non-payment and who are permitted to pay fees late will be charged $100 to have classes reinstated. Contact the Business Office (474-7384)
